

essential marbella® magazine & talk radio europe's

The Salón Andalucía at the Hotel Puente Romano was ablaze with lights, glamour and expectation, to welcome the 5th essential Marbella Magazine Awards 2010 in association with Talk Radio Europe. The event, which seeks to recognise outstanding achievement by local businesses, prized winners in 13 different categories, including hotel, golf club, spa, beach club, etc. Members of the local jetset donned their most spectacular gowns and evening dress and enjoyed a night to remember, celebrating an Awards ceremony which is very much a recognition of public opinion, people having voted in their thousands for their favourite business through an online survey on the essential Marbella Magazine website, www.essentialmagazine.com.

The night was filled with charm and humour, thanks to the captivating style of the presenters, American supermodel and businesswoman, Caprice, and contemporary artist Mugge Fischer.

Informative welcoming speeches by essential's Publisher and Director, Iain Blackwell, Creative Director, Andrea Böjti (who dreamed up the awards five years ago) and Steve Gilmour from Talk Radio Europe got the evening underway.
